This Sunday's Collect and Readings Year A

Introduction and Call to Worship

Today we celebrate the family of God – past, present and future. We celebrate well-known saints along with those nobody has heard of. We celebrate the fact that through the grace and love of God, we too are part of this family.

Our Mission Community Prayer

Heavenly Father,
As we meet in your presence,
hold us together in our Mission Community.
May your church grow as we deepen our love for you and our service to others.
Help us always to remember, though we are many, we are one body, as we all share in you, our one God.

Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading Revelation 7:9-end

A vision of heavenly worship, when all the tribulations and sufferings of the world are over. Everything and everyone is in its rightful place, gathered around the throne of God.

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3

These words affirm the truth that we celebrate in this season of All Saints – that simply because of God's love we too are children of God.

Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

This is the first time that Jesus teaches in Matthew's Gospel. We call it the Sermon on the Mount. It contains blessings and warnings and shows us a way to live.

Post Communion

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints
to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Confirmation

Confirmation service at Holy Trinity Church
Wednesday 27th January 2027
with The Right Reverend Moira Astin
Bishop of Crediton presiding

Confirmation is a significant and joyful moment in the journey of faith of a Christian. At a service of confirmation a person will confirm the promises they made, or were made on their behalf, at their baptism. They make a public profession of faith.
If you haven't been baptised there is an opportunity to do this as part of the confirmation service, or on a different occasion before confirmation.

If you would are interested, Rev'd Steven Jones will lead a 4 week Confirmation Course at Holy Trinity Church, beginning at 6.30 pm on Monday 26th October
