PLEASE take note of these!

Garden of Remembrance at Holy Trinity - 5th to 13th November. We will set this up outside the North East corner of the Church. You can purchase a wooden cross from one of the RBL poppy sellers, add a name and plant it in our Remembrance Garden from Thursday 5th November.

Bridge Books Christmas Pop-up Shop - Wednesday 11th November - 9.30 am to 12.30 pm in Holy Trinity Hall. Save yourself a trip into Exeter, and come along to Holy Trinity hall, for a wide selection of meaningful, spirit filled cards, calendars, books and gifts. Card or cash payments accepted.

Open Door Story-telling evening - Holy Trinity Church - 7 pm on Thursday 19th November. Come and listen to storyteller Lynn Harrison and Exmouth A Cappella for an evening of uplifting stories and song. Tickets £10 available from Open Door, Church Street, or scan the QR code on the posters.
Every ticket sold will help support Open Door's work in the local community.

HAVE YOU BEEN CONFIRMED? Bishop Moira will lead our next Confirmation Service at Holy Trinity on Wednesday 27th January 2027. Rev'd Steve is holding a 4 week Confirmation Course at Holy Trinity, from Monday 26th October. It's not too late to find out more about Baptism, or Confirmation; please contact the office to register your interest.

Recent sermons are available on our YouTube channel:

This Sunday's Collect and Readings Year A

Introduction and Call to Worship

Today is Bible Sunday, when we give thanks for scripture and for those who have handed it down to us. We rejoice that reading and hearing the Bible in our own language helps us understand God's relationship with humankind and enables us to know God better

Our Mission Community Prayer

Heavenly Father,
As we meet in your presence,
hold us together in our Mission Community.
May your church grow as we deepen our love for you and our service to others.
Help us always to remember, though we are many, we are one body, as we all share in you, our one God.

Collect

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever

First Reading Nehemiah 8:1-4a [5-6] 8-12

Having rebuilt Jerusalem's walls, Nehemiah calls on Ezra to read the books of the Law to the assembled people, so that they may understand what God requires of them.

Second Reading Colossians 3:12-17

Paul encourages the Colossians to behave to one another in ways that reflect the love and compassion of God, filled with the word of Christ.

Gospel Matthew 24:30-35

Jesus speaks of the signs of the approaching end time, reassuring his listeners that his words will remain when all else passes away

Confirmation

Confirmation service at Holy Trinity Church
Wednesday 27th January 2027
with The Right Reverend Moira Astin
Bishop of Crediton presiding

Confirmation is a significant and joyful moment in the journey of faith of a Christian. At a service of confirmation a person will confirm the promises they made, or were made on their behalf, at their baptism. They make a public profession of faith.
If you haven't been baptised there is an opportunity to do this as part of the confirmation service, or on a different occasion before confirmation.

If you would are interested, Rev'd Steven Jones will lead a 4 week Confirmation Course at Holy Trinity Church, beginning at 6.30 pm on Monday 26th October
